

May 25 - Physiotherapists Work in Communities, Big and Small

The goal of physiotherapy is to empower, promote independence and improve the quality of life for British Columbians across all ages and abilities. Physiotherapists working in rural and remote BC are experts in movement and function and passionate about supporting their local communities. These health care professionals help bring care to underserved populations, build strong working relationships with other health care providers, promote physical fitness, and provide advocacy.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?time_continue=1&v=zu9H2eb8gLo&feature=emb_title

Physiotherapists Work In Communities, Big and Small

#PhysioCanHelp

Click to see the full National Physio Month Calendar