

Membership Pricing 2020 - 2021

Join PABC today by becoming a member of the Canadian Physiotherapy Association.

For more information contact info@bcphysio.org

PABC fees are in addition to your CPA membership fees. For the membership term starting October 1, 2020, the CPA is offering a Member Relief Package. Please contact information@physiotherapy.ca for more information.

Membership Type	Description	PABC Annual Fee (taxes not included)
Practising A	Full time practising PABC physiotherapist member (i.e. more than 15 hours weekly)	$319.82
Practising B	Part-time practising PABC physiotherapist member. (i.e. less than 15 hours weekly)	$255.85
Student	You are currently enrolled in a full-time, post-graduate physiotherapy/rehabilitation university program, physiotherapist assistant program, or a recognized international credential bridging program	Free
New Grad	You have just completed an entry-level degree at a recognized Canadian university program and have been a student member for a minimum of two years previously (eligible in the first year of practice or portion thereof)	$159.91
Non-Practicing	A member who is working in a research, administrative, management or teaching position	$191.89
Retired	A member who is permanently retired from significant employment in physiotherapy, are age 55 or over, and have at least 20 years of CPA membership, or with a WCPT member organization, within the past 30 years	$47.98
PTA	A practicing physiotherapist assistant in B.C that has completed a formal PTA education program or has a form from a supervising PT	$127.93

Please contact CPA for more details about insurance add-ons, discounts, and other benefits.